

Pat McCall

Chief Growth Officer
Kelly®

Pat McCall is the Chief Growth Officer of Kelly, a leading workforce strategy and solutions provider, where he serves on the company's senior leadership team reporting to CEO Chris Layden. He is responsible for accelerating organic growth and delivering differentiated capabilities to clients and candidates across the Kelly's full portfolio of workforce solutions.

In this role, Pat leads growth strategy and execution, including strategic account expansion, new logo acquisition, and the development of a modern, integrated, client-centric go-to-market model. He brings deep expertise in enterprise commercial design, specialized human capital solutions, and IT services, with a consistent track record of building high-performing teams and driving profitable growth.

A seasoned workforce solutions executive with 30 years of experience, Pat has held senior leadership roles across both public and privately held organizations. He joined Kelly from AMN Healthcare, where, as Chief Growth Officer, he helped return the business to market share growth following the post-pandemic reset. Previously, as Chief Revenue Officer at People2.0, a global provider of workforce compliance and employer of record (EOR) solutions, he scaled the sales organization during a period of significant organic and acquisition-driven growth.

Pat spent more than a decade with Randstad, where he played a central role in building and scaling enterprise workforce solutions. As Chief Sales Officer, he led the launch of Randstad Enterprise, overseeing a €3B+ strategic account portfolio as the model was built and scaled, and was instrumental in building Randstad Sourceright into a global recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) and managed services provider (MSP) leader.

Pat holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from North Carolina State University. He serves on the CSO advisory board for Gartner and has been recognized by Staffing Industry Analysts as one of the industry's most influential leaders. He is also active in fundraising for the American Cancer Society and the Alzheimer's Association through endurance cycling events.
